PRESS RELEASE

MACON: Maxwell Wood, United States Attorney for the Middle District of Georgia, announced today that ALLISON NICOLE ROBINSON, age 24, of Macon, Bibb County, Georgia, was SENTENCED in United States District Court in Macon, Georgia to ten (10) years in Federal Prison without parole.

Ms. Robinson was the subject of a narcotics investigation sponsored by the Macon Office of the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the Macon Police Department. As a result of this investigation, Ms. Robinson was indicted on July 18, 2003 and charged with distributing more than fifty (50) grams of crack cocaine. She appeared on April 13, 2004 and entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

At the time, Ms. Robinson entered her guilty plea, she admitted that on April 18, 2002, she sold seventy-three (73) grams of crack cocaine to a confidential informant for One Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($1,700.00). She further stipulated that the sale took place at a residence on Capital Avenue in Macon, Georgia.

United States Attorney, Maxwell Wood, stated "this sentence reflects the aggressive approach taken by this office against those who sell illegal drugs".

The case was prosecuted by AUSA Charles Calhoun. Any questions concerning this matter should be directed to Sue McKinney, Press Contact, United States Attorneys Office, at (478) 621-2602.
